EDITORIAL

Many folks who show concern at the mention of "Socialism" or "Communism" are guilty of being a party to the principals that are basic to both philosophies.

This philosophy states that man's function is to subject his total efforts to the social structure of his day. Individuality is to be submerged in the human maelstrom of group desire.

To carry out this philosophy, governments take from one to give to others thru taxation and fees.

Our founding fathers endeavored to safeguard individuals against socialism. These safeguards are of no value unless exercised by the individual.

A budget has been presented by the town board of Winona Lake. As a citizen it is your responsibility to examine this budget and to voice your opinion for or against. Board members are governed by what you actively desire. It is the American way to acquaint ones self with facts and then do something about it. The philosophy of either "Socialism" or "Communism" is to quietly go along with the crowd.

Many folks who show concern at the mention of "Socialism" or "Communism" are guilty of practicing the philosophy basic to both by refusing to use the safeguard at their disposal.

COUNTRY PARSON

Speaking of those attending church, someone has observed: "Some attend Sunday morning service because they like the Church. Some attend Sunday evening service because they like the preacher. Some attend Wednesday prayer service because they like God."

Guess they that attend no service would be kinda unhappy in heaven - nobody else to like but themselves.

The quizzers of the Northern Atlantic District Quiz Team were fast jumpers as they answered one of the 20 questions asked by quizmaster Dave Hocking, the National Youth Director. Their triumph of 210 over Iowa District's 130, gave them the title of the Brethren International Bible Quiz, Saturday evening, August 16.

As a result of their 12 months of quizing over the books of Mark and Hebrews, the team will receive an all-expense paid trip to Puerto Rico to visit Brethren Foreign Missions.

BRETHREN INVESTIGATE FOR NEW CHURCH

Reverend Lester Pifer, Reverend Charles Ashman (both of Winona Lake), and Reverend Scott Weaver, of Osceola, Indiana, will travel to Chicago in the interest of the Indiana District of Brethren Missions. They will survey the Mt. Prospect area for the location of a new church.

FORMER GRACE COLLEGE STUDENT RETURNS FROM GERMANY

Roger Peugh, a former student of Grace College and who has been assisting in the Germany Youth For Christ activities, will return to Winona Lake this fall to resume his studies at Grace College.

Mr. Peugh first went to Germany two years ago at the end of his freshman year to work with a Youth For Christ Teen to Teen tour. A return to college studies was short lived as the Lord burdened his heart for Germany.

Centering his activities in West Berlin, he has been assisting Youth For Christ Bill Yoder in establishing Bible Clubs.

Mr. Peugh is returning for his sophomore year of study at Grace College.

220, and 440 yard dashes, the 800 yard, mile and two mile runs, the low and high hurdles, high jump, broad jump, pole vault, shot-put, and discus. The two divisions of competition, high school and open, attract athletes from all parts of the United States and Canada.

Featured Saturday is YOUTH IN ACTION. King and Queen candidates are voted upon during the chapel service; and in the evening service the King and Queen and their court will be presented. Also Saturday, will be the special recognition of servicemen and the election of Who's Who.

Excitement will run high, Sunday as winners of the Teen

Parade will be presented and the two finalist teams in the Bible Quiz Program compete for the quiz trophy.

Speakers for the Friday and Saturday chapel and evening services will be Dr. Donald Demaray, Dean of the School of Religion, Seattle Pacific College, Seattle Washington. Bishop E.C. John will address the Sunday morning service at 10:30 a.m. Speaker for the closing rally, 7:30 p.m. Sunday will be Dr. Myron F. Boyd, speaker and director of the Light and Life Hour. A Galilean service at the lake, 9:00 Sunday evening, concludes this year's Free Methodist Winona Youth Advance.

Pair Of Pants Almost Delayed Local Wedding

The wedding of Miss Carolyn Farley to Mr. Robert Wulliman, Saturday, August 17, was nearly detained for want of a pair of pants.

Miss Farley's grandfather, from Atlanta, Georgia, was dressing for the marriage ceremony, in which he was to give his granddaughter away, before he discovered he had forgotten to bring his suit pants.

With one hour and fifteen minutes before the ceremony, he began a fast trip in search of a pair of pants to match his suit coat. Desperation turned to near despair when the search to all men's clothing stores brought no results. A department store, however, yielded the much desired pair of pants; and the wedding began on time - 4:30 p.m. in the Winona Lake Free Methodist Church.

Contest Winner Receives Trip To Winona Lake

Entrance into the last few minutes of an essay contest won Mrs. Alice Calkins, of the Grand Rapids Michigan area, an expense-paid trip to Winona Lake, this last weekend.

Mrs. Alice Calkins, and her pastors wife Mrs. Leah Rubingh, were visiting the Grand Rapids Southland Zondervan Bookstore during the last day of its First Anniversary Celebration. Before leaving the store both decided to enter the essay contest which had yet ten minutes before it was to end.

Much to their surprise, Mrs. Calkins learned she had won the contest. She exclaimed "Why I don't even know what I wrote!" She received an expense paid trip to Winona Lake, sponsored by the Zondervan Publishing House and the Winona Lake Bible Conference.

Concerning her impression of Winona Lake, she said, "It's terrific. There are no words to describe it. I wish I could stay longer."

Mrs. Alice Calkins (center) and Mrs. Leah Rubingh (left) enjoy the visit won by Mrs. Calkins. Bob Martin, Winona Zondervan Bookstore manager, welcomes them to Winona Lake.

Demonstration Center

- Sunday School lessons
- Church-time materials
- VBS materials
- Training Hour materials
- Take-home Papers
- Visual Aids
- Handcraft
- SP Books
- Attendance Boosters
- Record Systems
- Supplies and Equipment
- Gifts and Awards

A veritable gold mine of useful information for all Sunday School and church workers is contained in the spacious bright new Scripture Press demonstration center, just across from the Billy Sunday Tabernacle.

A large part of the floor space of the all-new, 40' x 60' SP center is given over to a workshop area. Here actual demonstrations of the use of SP teaching materials and handcraft will help you see just how you can use these materials most effectively. Here clinics on various phases of the Total Church Program are conducted. And here valuable films and filmstrips are shown on a regular schedule.

On display in the front part of the center is every item in the Scripture Press line... available for your examination, with stocks of each item on hand to permit you to purchase any materials you need "on the spot" if you so desire.

We hope you will visit our new demonstration center often while you are here at Winona Lake.

Second Project

One month of hard work plus seven large boxes of clothing produced another project completed by the Westminster Fellowship of the Winona Lake Presbyterian Church.

The young people, under the direction of pastor Dick Anderson, gathered clothing for use in the Fort Wayne Home and Rescue Mission, of which Reverend Charles Dickenson is Superintendent.

With Ted Heaton driving the truck (provided by the Rodeheaver Company) the young people traveled in convoy to the rescue mission for the presentation, Mon., Aug. 19.

According to pastor Anderson a third project is under-way. He said, "It's a real cracker-jack! You'll have to wait, though, to hear about it."

"I wonder if I could get away with that kind of pet at my house!" Bob Dowdy is perhaps thinking this (as some of you may be) as he is surprised with the teeth of a five year old alligator... the pride and joy of John Siefkan.

John, who is the son of Dick Siefkan, captures fish and birds to feed his pet which he keeps in a special cage. During the winter months, John plans to keep his five year old friend in the basement of his house. He estimates that his alligator when fully grown will be approximately four feet in length.

Youth Advance Features Contest

Intuition will pay off for some fortunate guy or gal this week at the Free Methodist World Youth Advance at the Winona Lake Auditorium. Someone will go home with a good book or record as a prize even though their pockets may be nearly empty.

Robert Crandall, Free Methodist Youth Director, has chosen three intriguing book titles from the Light and Life Bookshop shelves and displays. These selections are being kept secret. Young people are looking through the Bookshop all this week trying to determine, if they can, which titles Mr. Crandall has chosen. Each contestant is entitled to a daily vote. Ballots may be dropped in the box at the Bookshop each day this week.

The contest closes at 5 p.m. Saturday. Prizes will be awarded at the Saturday evening convention rally.

General Director Of The African Inland Mission Dies

Dr. Ralph T. Davis, General Director Emeritus of the Africa Inland Mission, was called into the presence of the Lord rather suddenly on August 19th, at 3:40 p.m. This completed a life of fruitful ministry both in Africa and here in the homeland. The Funeral Service is to take place on August 22nd, at 10 a.m., at Media, Route 2, Clermont, Florida.

Dr. Davis was a student at Moody Bible Institute in 1917 at which time he answered the call of the Lord for a service in Africa. He first went to that land in 1921 and ministered for fifteen years in Rhodesia, Central African Republic and the Republic of the Congo.

After an extensive deputation ministry during both the first and second furloughs, Dr. Davis was asked to take up the duties of General Secretary of the Africa Inland Mission. Down through the years he was always keenly interested in the world missionary effort that was carried on by the Interdenominational Foreign Mission Association and on five occasions was chosen to the honored position of President serving in that capacity for nine years.

In the Spring 1949, Wheaton College honored this missionary statesman with the degree of Doctor of Divinity.

In June, 1955 at Kijabe, Kenya, East Africa, Dr. Davis was elected General Director of the Africa Inland Mission and continued in that position until 1962 when ill health forced him into retirement.

Dr. Davis is survived by his wife, Ellen Davis, (nee: Ortlieb), a son Rev. Robert Davis, serving in the Radio Ministry of the A.I.M. in East Africa, and a brother Rev. Walter Davis, Director of Israel's Hope.

We of the Africa Inland Mission humbly thank God for the gifts of ministry given to His servant, Dr. Ralph T. Davis, and hence to the A.I.M. and Africa.

A verse frequently quoted by him is very fitting - "Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever." Psalm 23:6.

REVEREND REED ACCEPTS REAPPOINTMENT

At the Free Methodist Wabash annual Conference, August 13-16, Reverend Arden L. Reed received reappointment to the Winona Lake Free Methodist Church.

Paul N. Ellis, formerly pastor of the West Morris Street Free Methodist Church of Indianapolis, was appointed to the three year term as Superintendent of the Wabash Conference.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCEMENT

Mr. and Mrs. Edson Moyer announce the approaching marriage of their daughter, Joyce Elaine, to Mr. Wayne Tucker, on Saturday, August 24, at 11:00 a.m., in the Winona Lake Free Methodist Church.
