NEW SCHOOL OPENS TODAY

Indiana Anti-Saloon League Will Train Temperance Workers—
List of Instructors.

The Indiana Anti-Saloon League opens its training school for temperance workers at Winona Lake today, to continue in session through July 20. While the superintendents of the League have had conferences of instruction, along lines similar to a school, this will be what is probably the first training school for the home temperance worker ever held in this country. Its chief purpose is to instruct the active workers in how to make systematic movements against saloons in townships of the rural districts and how to clear them out of city wards. While the Indiana organization has been actively engaged in this sort of work against the liquor traffic, it hopes through those who attend the school to conduct more aggressive campaigns than ever.

It is said that in 90 per cent of the communities of Indiana where the temperance element has failed in attempts to drive out the saloons, the failure has been due to lack of information on the part of the anti-saloon element as to how they should proceed, and the higher officials think that in all these districts the temperance work can be set in active motion again if the workers know what they should do and have a trained worker to lead them. The intention of those directing the school is to train these leaders.

The school at Winona will have four departments. One of them will teach how to start the sentiment in a community against the saloon, and how to strengthen and maintain this sentiment. Another subject to be dealt with will be that of legislation, or how temperance workers should go about having necessary laws framed. A third department, and perhaps the most important, will deal with the laws on the liquor question which are now on the books in Indiana. In treating of this subject, the school will undertake to make clear the meaning of these laws, how far temperance workers may proceed under them, and the question of what should be done in taking steps for advancing the legal phases of temperance in the future will be discussed. Total abstinence, or "the moral suasion arm" of the temperance movement, will form another division which the school will take up.

Three sessions a day will be held, morning, afternoon and night. The evening instruction will take the form of popular lectures. Dr. P. A. Baker, at the head of the Anti-Saloon League of America, and his assistant, Dr. George W. Young, of Kentucky; Rev. U. G. Humphrey, superintendent, and Rev. John F. Lewis, attorney, both of the Indiana League, will make up the corps of instructors.

The League has since back in the winter been at work on the plans for the new school, undertaking to have each district in the state that still has a number of saloons to send representatives to Winona Lake that

WORK OF EVANGELISTS

General Presbyterian Committee Will Hold Conferences With Cumberland Leaders in South.

Since the Cumberland Presbyterian church joined forces with the Presbyterian church, as it is known in the North, the general evangelistic committee of the combined organizations is mapping out some extensive work among the old Cumberland element. The details are being planned from the summer headquarters of the committee at Winona Lake, and Dr. J. Wilbur Chapman, who has organized the campaigns of the committee in many cities of the country in recent years, will next fall and winter give practically all of his attention to the Cumberland element in the South and Southwest. For the last fifty years the Cumberland branch has been more active in evangelistic work than was the church in the North, but did not have its work so thoroughly organized.

It is the intention of the general committee to send Dr. Chapman and a number of other well known ministers of the united bodies to Nashville, Knoxville, Birmingham, and other cities of the South to hold conferences with the ministers and important laymen of the Cumberland congregations. These will be called together from territory 100 miles or more around the cities where the conferences are to be held, and at these meetings it will be made clear to the former Cumberlands the plans and purposes of the general committee, so that the Cumberland people can take up the evangelistic work along the same lines that the church in the North has been following.

So much time is to be given to these conferences that the general committee will not map out extensive city evangelistic campaigns for Dr. Chapman and his forces, as was done last winter and spring. Where the conferences will be held and the dates for holding them will be announced from committee headquarters at Winona Lake within a few weeks.

The Cumberland organization already has representation on the general evangelistic committee, the members being: Dr. W. J. Darby, of Evansville, Ind.; Dr. B. P. Fullerton, St. Louis; Dr. Ira D. Landrith, Nashville, Tenn.; Dickson Williams, Chicago, later in the year some energetic campaigns may be started against the liquor traffic in those communities.

It is the intention to hold the school for temperance workers here every summer, or until the cause over the state has advanced to the point that trained workers have so aroused public sentiment that saloons can no longer exist in Indiana.

Crystal Wedding Anniversary.

On Saturday evening the evangelists on the Park happily surprised Prof. and Mrs. C. F. Allen in their new home, The Allen. The occasion was in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Allen's fifteenth wedding anniversary. They were presented with a magnificent cut glass carafe, with twelve cut glass a series of six lectures on nature today, and he is one of a half dozen authorities on the subject who will be here during the summer. He discusses the simplest flowers that one may find in the woods, one of his subjects being "The Flower's Best Friend." D. W. Dennis, of Earlham College, and Isaac Brown, the "bird and bee man," are talking to students and pleasure seekers on native birds. Nature study is one of the most popular diversions at this resort, for the woods, park and lake shore teem with bird and plant life.

chairman of the evangelistic committee appointed by the last Cumberland General Assembly.

Dr. Joseph P. Calhoun, pastor of the Homewood Avenue Presbyterian church, Pittsburg, has resigned his pulpit to become field secretary of the Presbyterian General Assembly's evangelistic committee. He is one of the ablest evangelistic pastors in the church and is now engaging permanently in evangelistic effort under Dr. Chapman. Dr. Calhoun was field secretary for one year and was very successful, returning to his pulpit as he had promised at the end of the year. He was re-elected field secretary by the committee at a meeting held at Des Moines, Ia. Dr. Calhoun will begin his new work in the fall and first will hold meetings in the South among the former Cumberland Presbyterian congregations. During his pastorate of ten years he has built up a strong congregation in Pittsburg, and his revival meetings every winter have been attended by uncommon results.

Dr. J. Beveridge Lee, of Milwaukee, has been appointed secretary of college and young people's work.

THE SATURDAY CONCERT.

Miss Angell, Miss Van Doozer, and Rogers' Orchestra Please All.

Miss Mary Angell, Mrs. Theodosia Van Doozer and the Rogers' Orchestra were the attractions at Saturday afternoon's concert. It was the last of Miss Angell's recitals at Winona, when she again showed her exceptional talent. The orchestra rendered a pleasing program, and it was the second time this season that Mrs. Van Doozer appeared on the Assembly program.

Mrs. Van Doozer gave two readings of unusual merit. The first number, "Story of Mary Elizabeth," by Mary Wilkins, was given with all the grace of manner and apt impersonation of which Mrs. Van Doozer is mistress. She responded to a hearty encore by giving a laughable monologue, "Camilia Ricardo," by Ruth McEmery Stuart, was the second number in which Mrs. Van Doozer made it evident that she is particularly strong in the reading of such sketches.

Young Pupils in Music.

Miss Ada Wagoner, of the kindergarten piano department, held a public demonstration at the chapel of The Inn on Saturday morning. Georgianna Lockwood, Hope Stelcey and Edward Haymaker, three of Miss Wagoner's young pupils read notes and answered questions on the rudiments of music, both alone and in concert.

Willis Haymaker played 2, 3, 4, of Diabellis' duets with Miss Wagoner and No. 5 of the duets alone. These demonstrations will be continued each Saturday morning at 10 o'clock during the season at The Inn chapel.

LETTER FROM A CAMPER

University of Michigan Man Writes of the Fine Vacation He Had at Winona.

Charles H. Talbot, a student in the law department of the University of Michigan, who spent a week this summer at the new Y. M. C. A. camp in the woods at Winona Lake, has sent a letter to Charles H. Harrington, manager of the camp, in which he said:

"It is with honest pleasure that I express my thanks and gratitude to yourself and the management of Winona Assembly for giving me the opportunity of being at Winona this season. Although I was able to attend the Assembly but one week, from July 2 to 9, I can truly say that it was the most profitable as well as the most enjoyable week I have spent at any time, anywhere.

"The camp is all that is advertised and more. The situation is ideal, the building is dry, the cots are comfortable, the chef is good-natured and the board is strictly first-class.

"There are two things which make the stay distinctly pleasurable and beneficial. The first is the magnificent concerts, sermons, entertainments and lectures which the Assembly offers. The second good thing is the helpful and intimate companionship with young men from other schools—fellows who are clean, Christians and with high ideals, which can't help but inspire one.

"It is a pleasure indeed to 'talk up' the Winona camp and Assembly, and to urge every Y. M. C. A. member and college man to spend at least a part of July and August with you."

HOW TO STUDY THE BIBLE

Dr. Albert C. Wieand, of the Bible School, Spoke on Saturday Morning at 11 O'clock.

Dr. Albert C. Wieand, of the Bible School, led in the 11 o'clock Bible hour of Saturday.

The three great essentials of Bible study are, he said, to get the heart right, get God's help and then to work earnestly. These three conditions must be complied with to make a success of any Bible study.

Getting the heart right is the first and greatest essential of any Bible study, but little can be accomplished unless the study is guided by God's help. Every passage that becomes living and vital to the student comes from actual searching for the truth. God tries to impress certain truths on His people, the speaker said. One is humility. Truths that could not be understood by the disciples were made vital to them after the resurrection.

One must get after the truths of the Bible just as one gets after the treasures of the mine. "Roll up your sleeves and dig," was the advice given by the speaker.

There are five divisions frequently made in a study of the Bible as a whole. These divisions are scientific, sympathetic, gramatic, historical and organic study.

The scientific study is the putting away of all prejudice and the getting of the heart in the proper attitude for study.

The sympathetic study is the getting of God's help. No book will bring a message that is not studied in a sympathetic manner. Just as a lover of Browning, or Shakespeare, takes his beloved author and gives himself over wholly to the beauty of the passages, so the Bible student must give himself over wholly to God's guidance.

The gramatic, historical and organic method of study are all combined in the last of three main divisions of Bible study, that of working earnestly. To get light and knowledge on the Bible these studies are absolutely necessary. Many put most emphasis on the historical side, but the literary side, the study of the words, sentences and style, are equally important.

After one studies diligently and discovers the truth, turn this word of God as a search light upon the soul. Never stop with facts, but probe deeper and get the underlying principles. Dr. Wieand urged that more time be given to a devotional study of the Bible. This devotional spirit is what really makes a man Christ-like, he said. The man who locks himself in his closet each morning in true communion with God does not neglect the opportunity of helping all who are in need of assistance.

Dr. Wieand closed with an excellent presentation of the Sunday School lesson of yesterday.

Precious Truths.

Many repeat the Lord's Prayer from time to time without realizing just what they say. Its very familiarity has unfortunately made it common, and yet it is so full of precious truths that we will never be able to understand all wholly, much less be able to live them fully in our daily lives.—Rev. L. M. Zimmerman, Lutheran, Baltimore.

MRS. J. A. EWALT.

AN AMERICAN IN JAPAN

Verling Helm Tells of Y. M. C. A.
Work in Army and Cities of the Oriental Land.

Verling W. Helm one of the American national secretaries of the Y. M. C. A. for Japan is now at Winona and has received some interesting word in regard to the work done there. A new era in Christian work in Japan was begun when the Emperor and Empress presented the Association with $5,000.

Thirty-six years ago all over Japan were the wooden edict boards forbidding anyone to become a Christian on penalty of death. This was when the present Emperor began his reign. There are at present in Japan eight city association, with 65 associations in the colleges and universities, with a membership of 3,000. There are four local and two national secretaries in charge of the organization; the other national secretary besides Mr. Helm being C. M. Fisher, of Oakland, Cal.

There are now fourteen Japanese secretaries, who have been trained to the work by the Americans. During the year and a half of the Russian war, the association expended $30,000, one-half of which was contributed by friends in America. The other half was raised in Japan, the $5,000 from the Emperor being included in this amount.

Mr. Helm went to Manchung last October as the guest of Japanese army officers, and regards the position of the Y. M. C. A. in Manchuria as unique. At the beginning of the war they had to ask permission to go to the front, but in a short time the government recognized the amount of good that was being done and not only were men and supplies taken over free by the Japanese transports, buildings and furnishings given, but the fine Russian church at Port Arthur was turned over by the Japanese government for the permanent headquarters of the Y. M. C. A. at Port Arthur. This church has an admirable location, being near the naval depot and military barracks. Mr. Helm has in his possession an interesting picture showing the Russian church and a group of Japanese army officers who are in hearty sympathy with the Y. M. C. A.

At the close of the late war the government requested that the organization remain for they feared the six or seven months of enforced idleness which would intervene before the 100,000 Japanese soldiers could be returned by the single line of railway. The appreciation of the government is shown by a letter, a copy of which has just been received by Mr. Helm. It was written by General Teranchi, Japanese Minister of War, last May, and said:

"The Young Men's Christian Association, moved by the desire to minister to the welfare and comfort of our officers and soldiers at the front, carried on its beneficent work throughout the Russo-Japanese War of 1904-1905. Beginning at Chinampo early in September, 1904, it kept pace with the northward progress of the field forces for nearly twenty long months, until March, 1906, establishing its work at eleven posts in Manchuria and Korea. At large expense of money and labor and by a great variety of means, it filled the leisure of our officers and soldiers, far from home, with wholesome recreation. The completeness of the equipment and the success of the enterprise were universally tested and recognized by our troops in the field. I am fully assured that the recipients of all this generous service are filled with deep and inexpressible gratitude.

"Now, simultaneously with the triumphant return of our armies, as I learn of the successful termination of your enterprise, I take this opportunity to express my heartfelt thanks for your noble services, and at the same time to voice my appreciation of the generosity of all those who have either by gifts or by personal effort supported the work."

Tokio is today the greatest student center in the world, there being 60,000 students from the high school grades and up. Tokio is also the greatest Chinese student center, there being 7,000 Chinese students. It is interesting to note that seventeen of the eighteen provinces of China send students to Tokio.

Twelve years ago, just after the close of Japan's war with China, but 23 per cent of her children of school age were in school. Three years ago 80½ per cent of Japan's primary population were in school against 70 per cent in America. Last year the school enumeration of Japan was the miracle of modern times, showing 93 per cent of the children of primary age in school.

The Y. M. C. A. is also growing, there being now two secretaries in Tokio. The mission school has been the pioneer of the girls' schools. The government has taken up the matter and are establishing girls' schools all over the empire.

Mr. Helm, who has had opportunities and advantages given to few to make a thorough study of these eastern quotations will give a lantern lecture Sunday, July 29, on the Y. M. C. A. work in the East.

The Dunbars at Winona.

The Dunbar company of bell ringers comes to Winona Park tomorrow to give its programs in the afternoon and evening. It is a highly capable organization, made up of Charles C. Curry, first tenor; Ralph Dunbar, second tenor; Harry Dunbar, baritone; Ralph Parland, basso. Ralph Dunbar, gifted as a cellist, will give special numbers, and the company will use more than 100 hand bells.

PLUMSTEAD AT WINONA

Monologist and Impersonator Will Begin a Week's Engagement at the Lake Today.

Ellsworth Plumstead begins a week's engagement at Winona Lake this afternoon, giving his quaint monologues with the Rogers' Orchestra.

A many-sided man is Ellsworth Plumstead. From grave to gay, from humorous to pathetic, from the sunshine of life to its shadows—in his profession of character sketch artist, or monologist, this versatile genius steps from one portrayal to the other with the easy transition which at once pronounces him a master of his profession.

A native of Michigan, where he was born thirty-nine years ago, Mr. Plumstead has spent thirty years of his life in Detroit. A natural-born wag and mimic, he could never be persuaded to turn his talents to professional advantage until six years ago. Success rewarded his initial recital and since he made his first public appearance he has mounted into popular favor by successive leaps until he is today, perhaps, the foremost entertainer in his specialty before the American people.

Mr. Plumstead's greatest successes have been scored in "old man," "big kid," "Irish," "German," and negro dialect characterizations. Mr. Plumstead is not a dramatic impersonator in the sense of taking on the character of every person in a play at a single performance, but when it comes to "bits" he can throw side lights on famous characters of fiction, beside which the efforts of many good players seem small and trifling.

He had a strong leaning toward the operatic stage and studied under the best masters for years with the idea of preparing himself for such a career. That accounts largely for the charm of his sympathetic, well-modulated voice.

Combine his physical qualifications with his close understanding of human nature and his ability to "take off" the people one sees every day, and one can readily understand the secret of his success.

THE ELEPHANT SHOW.

German Negro's Acrobatic Animals Appear at Winona Lake Today.

Eph Thompson, a German negro, and his acrobatic elephants, begin an engagement at Winona Lake today that is to continue for two weeks, with afternoon and evening performances. That the elephants have high rating as an attraction is indicated by the price paid by the Winona management for the performances that will be given here—$1,700 for the two weeks.

Golf.

Dr. Dickey brought in the lowest gross score in the first tournament of the season, held Saturday. Wilbert White was second. The latter also tied Richard Wolf for first net. The tie will be played off today or tomorrow. The scores:

	Gross.	Hdp.	Net.
Wilbert White	111	18	93
R. Wolf	122	29	93
Dr. Dickey	96	scr	96
Flickinger	126	29	97
Dr. White	121	16	105
Hogue	No card.

Baseball.

A timely shower which developed into a downpour cut off Warsaw's batting rally in the fifth inning and ended the game. A fair crowd watched the contest which ran along evenly for three innings until Warsaw found McCreary, who was pitching for the first time for a year. He lacked control and had to put them straight over. Davis, the new second baseman, showed up in fine style, handling the ball well and smacking out a nice three-bagger. Five innings were not completed for a game and the two teams will meet again.

Lecture on "Greater Russia."

Frank R. Roberson, a restless globe-trotter, who finds time to unpack his pictures and tell his stories to Winona people at least once a year, spoke at the auditorium on Saturday night on "Greater Russia." Mr. Roberson speaks with a voice of some authority, for he has sought and explored the nooks of the land of the Czar that the average traveler does not venture into. Mr. Roberson's lecture on the Russians is timely and instructive and his pictures add materially to the worth of what he says.

A RALLY OF THE EDITORS

All Editorial Associations in Indiana
Will Spend Five Days at Winona Lake in August.

"Take a week off and live longer" is inscribed on a general invitation that has been sent out by a committee for what is called "the Indiana allied editorial rally," which begins at Winona Lake on August 6 and continues through five days. All the editorial associations at the spring meetings voted to put political and business differences aside, take their families and get into the big outdoors at Winona Lake. The committee that has made up the program includes Democratic and Republican editors: Frank D. Haimbaugh, of the Muncie Press; F. T. Singleton, Martinsville Reporter; E. E. Cox, Hartford City News; Harry M. Smith, Greencastle Banner; George B. Lockwood, assistant general manager of Winona Assembly, and the secretary is Will K. Penrod, of Loogootee.

The invitation sent out says that the purpose of the meeting, the first of its kind that the editorial associations of this state have held, is to promote "unity of interest, exchange addresses, entertainments, outings and a good time."

The plan is for the editors of southern and central Indiana to meet in Indianapolis on Monday, August 6, and start for Winona Lake over the Big Four on the Winona Flyer, the editors to be the guests of the railroad. Harry Smith will have charge of this party. The editors from northern and western Indiana will meet at Logansport on the same day and A. D. Keesling, of Logansport, will have charge of the party. The northeastern editors will meet at Huntington and come to the lake in the charge of Thad Butler, of Huntington.

When the editors have arrived, Winona Assembly is "to do the rest," and the visitors will have passes to everything in and around Winona Park. The mornings are to be given to programs, and the afternoons and evenings will be spent in the Winona woods and in and on the lake. The list of speakers and their topics will be: Congressman C. B. Landis, of the Delphi Journal, "Suggestions;" John B. Stoll, South Bend Times, "The True Newspaper Man's Mission;" Frank T. Singleton, Martinsville Republican, "Fraternity;" Frank Haimbaugh, Muncie Press, "Cut Rate Advertising;" H. A. Barnhart, Rochester Sentinel, "Circulation Campaigns;" E. A. Remy, Seymour Republican, "Railroad Advertising."

Friday, August 10, will be "ladies' day," and those who are to be on the program will be: Mrs. L. G. Ellingham, of Decatur; Mrs. W. B. Campbell Anderson; Mrs. Harry M. Smith, Greencastle; Mrs. W. Bent Wilson, Lafayette; Mrs. S. N. Cragun, Lebanon, and Miss Mindwell Crampton, Delphi. The indications are that there will be from 600 to 700 editors here, and as many more women will be in the party. The Indianapolis News' Newsboys' Band will be here for the five days, giving programs each day—when the fifty boys who make up the band are not splashing in the lake.
